

“Different ABILITIES create great opportunities”

You are cordially invited to the official launch of The OPUS Project

Please join us as we launch The OPUS Project – a new initiative aimed at increasing employment for people with disabilities in Winnipeg. The OPUS project is designed to provide supported training to assist individuals with different cognitive abilities to prepare and gain access to the labour market by matching individual capacity with employer's needs in the labour market.

October is Disability Employment Awareness Month and together with our partners, we are ready to create an inclusive and diverse labour market.
